

Innermost Outlandish Ego

by Frank Ruf

Annotated version

Air Force ONE

the real estate sized flying soap box opens up and releases a military parade of daughter-dating-dolls asking:

hey, how super-inflated can a single atom be? well, for a nuclear-button-second, like the king of debt who lets the son-in-law try to dump his 666 on an oil-boy with a princeling-to-prince booze-hug

Trump was bragging he loves debt and called himself "king of debt" during the 2016 presidential campaign.

Kushner Companies bought the building 666-Fifth-Avenue in 2007 for a record sum of 1.8 billion dollars with the help of a 1.215 billion dollar loan. As the debt payments became a problem, an investor bought the tower in 2018, probably involving Qatar.

Furthermore, Jared Kushner reportedly maintains a close relationship with Crown Prince of Saudi Arabia Mohammad bin Salman.

TWO Coups

first, sell your condos to Russian roulette-professionals those Crimean-Champagne-players ready for the intercontinental game and then, second, sell a tax-trick to the public waiting outside the Winter Palace the rest is knee-jerk-talk about the honor of the flag and the hacked social-media-gulag

In Trump Tower apartments were reportedly sold to Russian oligarchs.

In 2017 the Trump administration signed into law a controversial tax reform.

In 2018 Trump criticized NFL-players harshly who took a knee for the anthem.

THREE Screens

upvalue the anti-spaceforce-warfare-capability (or whatever) of your Nixon-suite with gut-extention and a golden knob treat the manic children of your mind's ever-hungry eye to cheeseburgers in bed - and then put those kids in cages while watching yourself on three screens

killing your father

President Nixon resigned before an impeachment process against him was ready for a vote in Congress.

The children of migrants were put into cages on the US-Mexico border.

Trump could be traumatized to some extent because of the behaviour and criticism of his father.

FOUR Walls

build four walls around the swamp and below the water banana-replicate a rublegate - here devour the sound of silent citizens - your favourite song – go mad with it auction off the last reverberation of foreign policy and then safely sit for a deposition (a.k.a. the pee-pee): but draw your knife-sword-gun (#GetReadyRussia) and pardon your precious bodily fluids

During the 2016 election campaign Trump promised to drain the so called swamp in Washington DC.

Trump has established close business ties with Russian oligarchs over decades.

The so called pee-pee tape is probably a tool of the Russian secret service to blackmail Trump.

FIVE Ideas For The Next Napalm-Opera first: hire & fire second: let it hot-desk throughout your innermost outlandish ego third: reuse evidently oily soap on sad facts fourth: let its desert-bleached moustache fuel your carbon-government fifth: fire the fire and make new soap from the ashes

The hawkish politician (he often gets described as the „architect“ of the 2003 Iraq War) and National Security Advisor (April 2108 – September 2019) John Bolton is known for his moustache.

The Trump administration has close ties to the oil-industry, the first Secretary of State Rex Tillerson was a former chief executive officer of ExxonMobile.

SIXTH Sense to relax the lizard-brain after noble nuclear diplomacy heat your bodily fluids up for spankee-mode grab an anti-locker-room-talk-capability-magazine roll it up and hand it over all news is good news? – the truth is: 333 million of us spankers own the presidency's tanning goggles

Trump tried to defend his words “grab them by the pussy” as locker room talk.

The details revealed by Stormy Daniels include a magazine and spanking.

Trump's long-standing principle is to dominate the news cycle regardless of the content of the information.

SEVEN Ties In Tar

ring seven dictators marvelling at the shiny row of the seven lawyers of your lawyer who dance in the foam of clean coal dangle your seven ties and let them sign non-disclosure-agreements in tar-sand

Trump is well known for being involved in endless court cases.

During the 2016 presidential campaign Trump promised to support coal mining.

Non-disclosure-agreements were negotiated by Trump's long-time “fixer” Michael Cohen.

EIGHT Years In Office

a hot deal to squeeze your dacha-family into the Oval Office-jacuzzi, gently simmering right atop the red tip of our melting iceberg: make your barbies and princelings drill crude-butter by the fire place the fairytale-machine on the mantelpiece (or read them Oedipus?) and every year try to swallow more of that super-rich and debt-fizzy fat

Trump brought his daughter and his son-in-law into his presidential administration.

The close ties of the Trump administration to Saudi Arabia could also involve personal business deals.

Not only declared Trump himself the “king of debt”, but his 2017 tax reform also raised the national debt.

NINE Heel Spurs

nine years of high-ISO Vietnam War-icon painting and another loser was: journalism now, embedded, reporters instead paint war-porn with black-site-blood naked they storm the headlines blind behind the visionary parade of legendary deferments

Trump was medically deferred during the Vietnam War because of heel spurs.

The so called “embedded journalists” are not able to report independently.

A black site is often a secret prison operated by the military or the secret service, like the CIA.

TEN Commandments

Sayonara Mr Spankee, before you go please, finally fake the Bible and de-bribe the bear, your brides and the Broad and Wall-Streets and then convert to Islam pay your 130,000 dollars so they won't tell Krishna

After the revelations by Stormy Daniels, Trump was known in certain circles in Washington as “Spankee”.

The support of many evangelical voters for Trump in 2016 was probably key to the election victory.

130,000 dollars refer to the non-disclosure agreements negotiated by Michael Cohen.

The Commander's ELEVENTH Commandment: Cable Beauty how fancy to wear a fox-tail to the jacket of Commander-in-Chief as the Army's Field Manual requires of every officer: zoability – through mutation down to soundbite-bombast how hard to de-dress in billboard-combat and how easy to mobilize a furry broadcaster just share your fixer

Fox News has been a long-time supporter of the Trump presidency.

Trump, being commander-in-chief, would not meet the requirement of the Army's Field Manual.

Fox-anchor Sean Hannity was also a client of Michael Cohen.

Five To TWELVE

Now we're past Easter 2018 resurrection-season for über-hawks camouflage-painted raptor-eggs are suing their own memories while wizards go for witch-hunts in golf-carts the so-called leader of the (so-called?) free world mutates – as long as pussygrabbing fake-trumps evolution – into a fact-stripping porn star outcelebing el presidente

In April 2018 John Bolton became National Security Advisor (after he had already served under Bush).

Trump tries constantly to defend himself by claiming he is the victim of a witch-hunt.

Trump is famous for his attacks against the Latino-community.
